ALMATY SIGHTSEEINGS

Destination	Pronunciation	Significance & Architecture	Indian Reference
Almaty City Tour	Al-ma-ty	The "City of Apples." Features the Cathedral (made entirely of wood without nails) and First President's Park, Panfilov Park, Central Gorky Park, Green Bazaar, Rakhat Chocolate Factory, Arbat Street, Mega Mall	Like Chandigarh—green, well-planned, and sitting right at the foot of the mountains.
Shymbulak	Shim-bu-lak	Central Asia's top ski resort at 2,260m. Features world-class gondolas and the famous Medeu ice rink (Speed skating rink)	The Gulmarg of Kazakhstan. The snow quality and cable car views are legendary.
ok-Tobe	Kok-To-be	"Blue Hill." Reached by cable car from the city center. Home to the Almaty TV Tower and a Beatles statue.	Similar to Mussoorie's Gun Hill or Mount Abu; a hilltop for evening views and leisure.
Issyk Lake	Is-sik	A stunning alpine lake formed by a landslide 8,000 years ago. Surrounded by dense forests.	Reminiscent of Naini Lake or Bhimtal in Uttarakhand.
Alma-Arasan	Al-ma A-ra-san	A gorge famous for its thermal hot springs and healing mineral waters. Popular for picnics.	Like the Vashisht Hot Springs in Manali; a place for natural healing and relaxation.
Assy (George) Plateau	As-sy Pla-to	A high-altitude "Plateau of the Giants" with an ancient observatory. Home to nomadic yurts and horses.	Similar to the Ladakh High Plateaus; vast, desolate, and incredibly beautiful.
Big Almaty Lake	Al-ma-tin-skoye	Known as "BAL." A turquoise reservoir that changes color with the seasons. It provides the city's drinking water.	Comparable to Pangong Tso for its vivid blue color and high-altitude mountain backdrop.
Charyn Canyon	Cha-rin	Often called the "Little Brother of the Grand Canyon." Features the "Valley of Castles" rock formations.	The Gandikota (Grand Canyon of India) equivalent. Red rocks and dramatic cliffs.
Kolsay Lakes	Kol-say	A series of three lakes known as the "Pearls of the Northern Tian Shan." Surrounded by pine forests.	Similar to Sattal (Seven Lakes) in Himachal; serene, deep blue, and surrounded by greenery.
Kaindy Lake (Saty)	Ka-in-dy	Famous for the "Sunken Forest"—submerged spruce trees that stick out of the water like needles.	A unique phenomenon like the Submerged Church of Shettihalli, but natural and alpine.
Qoi Qarangi	Koy Ka-ran-gi	Also known as the Llesbayac area. Rugged mountain terrain perfect for off-road trekking and high-altitude views.	Like the Zaskar Range; raw, untouched, and strictly for adventure seekers.
Ethno Village	Eth-no	(Huns Village). A living museum of Kazakh history where you see eagle hunting, yurt building, and traditional games.	Comparable to Chokhi Dhani (Rajasthan); a cultural immersion into the traditional local lifestyle.
Gorky Central Park	Gore-kee Park	Central recreation hub since 1856. Features a mix of Soviet-era statues, modern rides, and a large lake.	Like Cubbon Park (Bangalore) or Maidan (Kolkata)—a massive green lung for the city.
Panfilov Park	Pan-fee-lov	Memorial park honoring WWII heroes. Home to the Ascension Cathedral, a 56m tall wooden structure built without nails.	Like India Gate (Delhi) combined with a colorful Ancient Temple—solemn memorials set in a public square.
Green Bazaar	Zel-yoh-nee Ba-zar	A bustling traditional market. Features Soviet-style concrete halls with hundreds of stalls selling fresh produce and spices.	Like Crawford Market (Mumbai) or Chandni Chowk (Delhi)—the sensory heart of the city's trade.
Rakhat Factory	Ra-khat	Kazakhstan's most famous chocolatier. The building is industrial but the aroma of cocoa fills the entire neighborhood.	Like a massive Amul Factory or a high-end Cadbury Outlet—an iconic, nostalgic national brand.
Zenkov Cathedral	Zen-kov Ca-thee-dral	A Russian Orthodox masterpiece completed in 1907. It is one of the tallest wooden buildings in the world (56m). Remarkably, it was built without using a single metal nail and survived a massive 1911 earthquake while stone buildings around it crumbled.	Like the Padmanabhapuram Palace (Kerala)—renowned for its sophisticated ancient wooden architecture and joinery—combined with the vibrant colors of a South Indian Temple Gopuram.

OPTIONAL EXPERIENCES

The packages are customizable and if you prefer you can include below excursions and activities as well:

- BIG ALMATY LAKE: The tour to Big Almati Lake takes approx. 1 hour from City Centre. The road from the visitor center to the lake is closed to most vehicles, so you will need to use an arranged car service for a fee. You will likely spend 1-2 hours at the lake taking photos and enjoying the views.
- PARAGLIDING IN SHYMBULAK: It will cost around 106$.
- FALCON SHOW: The show features trained birds of prey (falcons, golden eagles, owls, vultures.) demonstrating hunting techniques and natural behaviors under guidance of falconers. It will be of 40 min. from 4 pm to 4:40 pm and will cost you around 9$.
- RIFLE SHOOTING: Most places offer gun rental, ammunition, and safety gear (ear and eye protection). Some places may even include an instructor in the base price. Cost: around 20$
- HORSE RIDING: The Almaty Horseback Riding Club is a well-known spot for both beginners and experienced riders. They provide various riding packages ranging from short rides to multi-day excursions. Cost: around 20$
- ARCHERY: An open-air archery range in the park, where you can pay for a session and have access to basic equipment like bows and arrows. Cost: around 20$
- ANTISTRESS RELAX: Smash Room Almaty is one of the few places where you can experience stress-relief activities like crushing or breaking items. Cost: around 49$
